National Aviation Safety Inspection Program

Program started in 1984. Annual accumulation is approximately 8 feet.

1. Inspection files of the National Aviation Safety Inspection Program (NASIP), Regional Aviation Safety Inspection Program (RASIP), and Office Aviation Safety Inspection Program (OASIP). Files maintained by Flight Standards regarding air carriers, emergency medical service operators, pilot schools, repair stations, maintenance technician schools, and external load operators. Files include correspondence, team member lists, inspector information sheets, database reports, and inspection findings reports.

Disposition:

- a. Flight Standards Certification and Surveillance Division. Destroy after 2 years.
- b. Regional Flight Standards offices. Destroy 4 years after follow-up and corrective action is completed or when superceded by another NASIP, RASIP or OASIP inspection.
- c. Flight Standards Field offices. Destroy 4 years after follow-up and corrective action is completed or when superceded by another NASIP, RASIP or OASIP inspection.

2. NASIP Annual Reports.

Disposition: PERMANENT. Transfer to the National Archives when 5 years old.

3. Electronic Mail and Word Processing System Copies. Electronic copies of records that are created on electronic mail and word processing systems and used solely to generate a record keeping copy of the records covered by the items in this schedule. Also includes electronic copies of records created on electronic mail and word processing systems that are maintained for updating, revision, or dissemination.

- a. Copies that have no further administrative value after the recordkeeping copy is made. Includes copies maintained by individuals in personal files, personal electronic mail directories, or other personal directories on hard disk or network drives, and copies on shared network drives that are used only to produce the recordkeeping copy.

Disposition: Delete/destroy within 180 days after the recordkeeping copy has been produced.

- b. Copies used for dissemination, revision, or updating that are maintained in addition to the recordkeeping copy.

Disposition: Delete when dissemination, revision, or updating is complete.
