	VA MEDICAL RECORDS OF PATIENTS This request for records disposition authority covers certain VA medical records which document the medical care of individuals (veterans and non-veterans; VA beneficiaries and non-VA beneficiaries) who are treated at VA health care facilities. They include clinical records and related administrative records pertaining to the individual. The primary active medical records are referred to as the Medical Records Folder File or the Consolidated Health Record. They consist of two segments, (a) medical or clinical records and (b) administrative or correspondence records, which document episodes of medical care and benefits provided to patients by the VA. Primary records are considered inactive 3 years after the last episode of care, at which time they are converted to a Perpetual Medical Record and an Inactive Medical Record for long-term retention. Auxiliary medical records created as a result of specific medical procedures or tests, records of patient's visits, indices to these auxiliary records, etc., while consisting of separate files series for maintenance and disposition purposes, are summarized in the primary medical

References to item numbers in the current VA Department of Medicine and Surgery Records Control Schedule (RCS) 10-1 precede the title of each records series. This request includes certain records series that have been reappraised under the moratorium against the destruction of VA medical records which was imposed in July 1979 and for which proposed retention periods are the same as previously approved by the cited NARA job numbers. Such records are included herein to provide a comprehensive listing of VA medical records pertaining to patients and are noted by an asterick (*) in column 7, Item No. MEDICAL ADMINISTRATION SERVICE RECORDS (RCS 10-1, Section XXII)
1	136-5 -Medical Records Folder File or Consolidated Health Record. This records series contains all professional and administrative material necessary to document the episodes of medical care and benefits provided to individuals by the VA health care system.
1a	Medical Records Folder. This file constitutes the active medical or clinical records segment of the Consolidated Health Record. It completely documents diagnostic examinations and definitive medical, surgical, psychiatric, and dental care or treatment rendered a patient at a VA health care facility. It contains in written and graphic form the diagnostic, treatment and sociological information compiled by various members of the medical care team who participated in the care of a patient during one or more courses of treatment. In addition, it is intended to meet the legal, administrative, teaching and research needs of the VA medical staff, and provide a means of studying and evaluating the type of care rendered. VA and other monetary benefits are sometimes decided by use of information from the Medical Records Folder.	NN 165-117
