

INACTIVE - ALL ITEMS SUPERSEDED OR OBSOLETE

Schedule Number: NC1-015-78-07

All items in this schedule are inactive. Items are either obsolete or have been superseded by newer NARA approved records schedules.

Description:

Transfer number mentioned in the SF-115 (73-A-0669) does not appear in NARS-5 or in ARCIS. But page 4 of the dossier is a copy of the transfer's SF-135. In its bottom right corner is a stamp that reads: "ENTIRE SHIPMENT DISPOSED OF. SFE 75-RA-1." Records are assumed to be disposed of as indicated in the SF-115.

| 1.         | This disposition request covers certain records of the Pacific Branch of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers at Sawtelle, California. The records date mostly from the last part of the XIXth Century and the early part of this Century and total 18 cubic feet in volume. They have been previously appraised (see Accession Job No. 451-158) and found lacking in archival worth. The records are now located at the Federal Records Center at Laguna Niguel, California, in accession number 73-A-0669. A description of the records, along with their proposed disposition, follows. a. General Time Records, 1896-1909, consisting of large ledger books in which is given the name of employees, many of whom were inhabitants of the Home; their occupation or rank; unit in which they worked; and their rate of pay. b. Hospital Records, 1898-1921, consisting of large bound volumes in which is given a record of medical treatment received by the inhabitants of the Home. The information includes the name of the patient and his Home number; his company and regiment; date admitted; his age, religion, marital status, and names of any |                      |                  |
