RECORDS OF THE ENERGY AND SCIENCE DIVISION

Records Common to the Division Office and Branches

1. Administrative Records. The administrative records relate to the internal organization and management of the Division or Branch, including chronological files, work plans, and related records.

TEMPORARY. Cut-off every 2 years.
 Destroy when 2 years old.

2. Correspondence Records. The correspondence records consist of routine inquiries (from the public, referrals from the White House, Congress, and other Government agencies), replies thereto, background materials for formal informational releases and other correspondence in which no unusual administrative decisions, policies, or efforts are involved.

TEMPORARY. Cut-off every 2 years.
 Destroy when 2 years old.

3. Legislative Information Records. The legislative clearance records consist of copies of correspondence from Congress and other Government agencies, including printed materials.

TEMPORARY. Cut-off at end of each Congress.
 Destroy when 2 years old.

The Legislative Reference Division maintains the permanent records on all legislative clearance records.

4. Executive Order and Proclamation Information Records. The executive order and proclamation records include copies of materials on clearance, preparation, presentation, and publication.

TEMPORARY. Cut-off every 2 years.
 Destroy when 2 years old.

The General Counsel's Office maintains the permanent records on all executive orders and proclamations.

5. General Accounting Office Reports Records. The GAO reports records are extra copies for reference purposes only and require no action by the Division.

TEMPORARY. Cut-off every 2 years.
 Destroy when 2 years old.

GAO reports requiring action by the Division are maintained in the Branches as part of the program records.

A control set of GAO reports is maintained by the Director's Office Mail Unit. These records are disposable when 5 years old. (NN 173 238)

6. Program Reference Material. The program reference material consists of extra copies of record materials retained solely for convenience of reference; information and reference copies of correspondence and other papers on which no action is necessary; preliminary drafts of letters, memoranda, reports, studies, preliminary worksheets and informal notes that do not add significant data or substance in the final steps of the preparation of an official record; shorthand notes, including stenographic notebooks and stenotype tapes, that have been transcribed; abstracts of correspondence, route slips, and letters of transmittal that do not contain significant information; stocks of publications and processed documents maintained for distribution purposes; catalogues, trade journals, and other publications or printed material received from other Government agencies, commercial firms, or private institutions, which require no action or supplement the official record.

TEMPORARY. Cut-off every 2 years.
 Destroy when 2 years old.

7. Personal Papers. Papers of a private or nonofficial character which pertain only to an individual's personal affairs that are kept in the office of an OMB employee will be clearly designated by him as nonofficial and will at all times be filed separately from the official records of his office. In cases where matters requiring the transaction of official business are received in private personal correspondence, the portions of such correspondence that pertain to official business will be extracted and made a part of the official files.

TEMPORARY. Dispose when no longer needed.

3. Budgetary Records. The budgetary records consist of copies of periodic reports from various Government agencies such as; Budget Execution reports and Statements of Financial Condition; and copies of various other documents.
