I. Social Security Claim File

The schedule provides authoritative instructions for the retention or destruction of claim file records regardless of media related to Title II (Retirement, Survivors and Disability Insurance), Title XVI (Supplemental Security Income for the Aged, Blind and Disabled), and Title XVIII Parts A and B of the Social Security Act. It grants authority for the disposition of existing and future claim file records.

The claim file contains material related to the request for or continuation of benefits/payments under Titles II and XVI and to Title XVIII as it relates to those titles. Items in the claim file include but are not limited to the initial claim application, award/denial notice, supporting evidence and documentation for initial and continuing entitlement, various determination forms, changes in representative payees, overpayment/underpayment material, recordings of ALJ hearings, general correspondence, etc. Claim files involving blindness or disability will also include disability related information including documentation of the disability determination, supporting medical development and evidence, new medical material received after a medical decision has been made, continuing disability reviews, and other disability evidence.

Information in the claim file is used throughout SSA for purposes of determining initial or continuing eligibility for benefits, the amount of benefits and the appropriate payee for benefits; reviewing claims through the administrative appeals process; ensuring proper benefit payments; and answering inquiries about claims. A claim file record may include part or all information related to an individual claim number consistent with the particular business process. For example, based on a given business process, a particular claim may have two claim file records for the same claim. One claim file record may contain initial claim material while another claim file record contains post eligibility material. Additionally, claim file records created for different potential timeframes may be combined or joined together for business reasons. When this occurs, the combined claim file record will be maintained for the longest applicable retention timeframe.

Disposition Instructions

A. Inputs

Delete/destroy after recordkeeping copy has been placed in the claim file record and verified. (N1-47-03-1, Item 1/A)

B. Claim File Records

Guidance

The following are examples where claims will be maintained beyond the scheduled period for destruction:

1. Fraud, Abuse or Misuse -- All claim file records where possible fraud, abuse or misuse have been identified or are involved in investigations of fraud, abuse or misuse will not be destroyed until the Office of the Inspector General provides approval to release such protection.

2. Court Cases -- All claim file records involved in court cases or class actions will be protected from destruction until completion of all the legal actions and the Office of the General Counsel provided approval to release such protection.

3. Administrative Sanctions -- All claim file records which have been identified as potentially subject to administrative sanctions will not be destroyed until the Office of the Inspector General provides approval to release such protection.

Agency Concurrence

I have reviewed the record descriptions and their respective proposed dispositions. I am of the opinion that the records will be maintained for a period of time sufficient to protect the legal and financial rights of the government and of the people directly affected by the Agency's activities.
