1.	Special Wage Reports for Supplemental Security Income Recipients A. Sheltered Workshop Wage Reports The reports are used to verify actual monthly wages of SSI recipients and ensure that their monthly SSI checks are accurate (i.e., the payment amount is based on accurate wage data). The monthly and/or quarterly reports contain the Supplemental Security Income recipients' names, Social Security numbers and wage information. Depending upon the type of report, it may contain only the most recent data, or it may report cumulative data. The data is entered by the district office directly into the Supplemental Security Record as verified wage data. Because each report identifies and contains information on many recipients, privacy considerations prohibit individual reports being filed in the claims folders. The reports are retained in the DO as documentation of verified wages.		3 items
