	RECORDS RETENTION AND DISPOSAL SCHEDULE DISTRICT AND BRANCH OFFICES
1.	Hearing Decision Files Copies of hearing decisions for those individuals residing in the district office (DO) service area who have requested an administrative review of their case by an administrative law judge. Included in the files are Forms HA-514, Hearing Decision, or its equivalent. Also included in the files may be copies of appellate decisions or Federal court decisions. These decisions are forwarded to the DO for reference and for use in answering any inquiries from the claimant regarding the decision. Also in Title XVI disability cessation cases the copy will be used to initiate termination of payments. Destroy 6 months after date of decision.
2.	Wage Posting or Correction Records Records consisting of documents created in the posting of unreported FIGA wages or in the correction of an erroneous posting. Included in the files are

	Forms SSA-7010, Notice of Determination of FICA Wages, or its equivalent, and related correspondence. Data on Form SSA-7010 consists of employer and employee identification information, corrected wage information, and certification that wages are correctly posted. Record copies of these documents are maintained in the claims folder. Copies are also retained by the Office of Central Operations and Internal Revenue Service. Destroy when 90 days old unless development establishes precedent. In that case, file in the precedent file and retain in accordance with disposition instructions for precedent documents. 3. Disclosure File Consent statements signed by claimant stating that specific personal information may be released to organizations such as State welfare departments, legal aid groups, pension funds, etc. These statements may be on the organization's stationery or may be on Form SSA-1610, Social Security - Public Assistance Agency Information Request and Report. Information contained in the statements or on Form SSA-1610 includes claimant identification, information to be released, and organization to be given the information. Also included in the file are requests by organizations, such as welfare departments or pension funds, for information about a large number of people. In these cases, the organization maintains individual consent statements, unless the request is for tax return information. SSA must then retain the individual consent statements for IRS audit. a. Statements Requesting Disclosure of Tax Return Information Destroy when IRS audit is completed. b. Other Disclosure Requests Destroy when disclosure transaction is completed. 4. Informal Disallowance File A file containing copies of Forms SSA-L991, Supplemental Security Income Information, and SSA-3462, Record of SSI Inquiry, or their equivalents. 	about eligibility for SSI benefits and who, upon review without verification of resources and other eligibility factors by the DO, are found to be ineligible for SSI benefits. No formal application is filed and no Title XVI claims folder established. Records are maintained by personal identifier--either surname or social security number. These documents are placed in the claims folder, if a Title II claim is filed, to document that the individual has been considered for SSI benefits. Destroy when 90 days old. 5. Undelivered Social Security Number Cards A file of undelivered social security number cards, Form SSA-702, Social Security Card, or its equivalent, maintained in alphabetical or social security number order. These cards are undelivered because either the address is incorrect or the individual has asked that the DO keep the card until he/she picks it up. Since the information is available on SSA's NUMIDENT and ALPHADENT system, a duplicate card may be issued at some future time when address or pickup problems are resolved. Destroy 30 days after returned to the DO as undeliverable or 30 days after card is made available for pick-up by applicant. 6. Provider Summary Inspection Reports Form HCFA-2567, Statement of Deficiencies and Plan of Correction, or its equivalent, for hospitals, nursing homes, or other providers of Medicare services in the DO's servicing area. These are maintained by the DOs as part of the Freedom of Information materials available for public reference. HCFA-2567 contains the results of Medicare officials' inspection of providers. It includes a summary statement of deficiencies and the provider's plans to correct these deficiencies. Record copies of these inspection reports are maintained by the Health Care Financing Administration. Destroy upon receipt of updated report. 7. Quality Control Files Quality control records, such as Form SSA-3333U3,
