These tapes are produced by the Online Computer Library Center (OCLC), a contractor, from information supplied by SSA. Types of records, which are received semi-annually by SSA from OCLC, consist of catalog cards (used for the library reference catalog) printouts and magnetic tapes. Information on the records may include name of publication or published work; author; catalog number; publisher's name, address and date; and descriptive information concerning the work. The magnetic tapes are now retained for future use for a proposed online cataloging system to be established as a machine-readable master file with periodic updates. 1. Catalog Cards Remove and destroy when last copy of the work is		4 items
