Background Information

The General Records Schedule (GRS 1 / 29) covers general agency-sponsored training files, and the files of employee training. Its coverage includes correspondence, memoranda, agreements, authorizations, reports, requirement reviews, plans/objectives relating to the establishment and operation of training courses, conferences, background/working files, reports, and other records relating to the availability of training and employee participation in training programs sponsored by other government agencies or non-Government institutions.

The GRS EXCLUDES the record copy of manuals, syllabi, textbooks, and other training aids developed by the agency. It requires these records be scheduled by submission of an SF 115 to NARA. This schedule will cover the NARA training material excluded by the GRS. It will cover record copies of training materials used for training in the mission-related and occupational development functions or activities associated with the goals of NARA and its programs, as well as the routine required/general files of agency-sponsored training. Records include, but are not limited to, training course plans, instructional materials, and other training aids including record copy of manuals, syllabuses, textbooks, and other training aids developed by the agency.
