Under section 7.9(c) of the Farm Credit Act of 1987, stockholders of associations that voluntarily merged with other associations after December 23, 1985 and until January 6, 1988 (the date of the Act) could petition the FCA from one year after adoption of regulations, (i.e., until February 1989) to organize as a separate association.

Under section 433, each Federal Land Bank Association or Production Credit Association, whose chartered territory adjoined the territory of another district, could petition the FCA for a 12 month period after the enactment of the Act to amend the charters of the associations and the adjoining district bank to provide that the territory of the association become part of the adjoining district.

These are petitions containing stockholders' signatures and other identifying information submitted in accordance with these sections. The period for petitioning the FCA has expired. The FCA no longer receives these records.
