I.3. METHODS OF BILLING FOR TRANSMISSION

This series contains documentation submitted by various offices for OGC review and comment, information, or legal opinion related to billing for the transportation of goods. Consists of memoranda and related material documenting agency policy and procedure, correspondence, bills of lading and audit reports. OGC uses the information in this record series for many years when researching previous legal opinions they have given to enable them to give consistent legal opinion. The series also includes OGC's reference copies (as issuer) of standard form 1103, Bill of Lading. The record copy of standard form 1103 is in the Division of Purchasing (II-NNA-2126).

DISPOSITION

A. Memoranda and related documents received for OGC review and comment, or for information only regarding Bills of Lading.

Destroy in agency when no longer needed for reference.

B. File on demurrage containing audit reports, memoranda, and related documents received by OGC for review and comment or for information only.

Destroy in agency when no longer needed for reference.

C. OGC (as service user) copy of Standard Form 1103

Destroy when 1 year old.
