1. FORESTRY PHOTOGRAPH FILE

This record series contains a photograph file dating from the 1930s to the 1970s containing negatives and either black and white or color photographs of TVA's forestry activities. These photos have been used in TVA publications and also are used to document changes in the Valley to show program progress. There is no index to the file, however, all negatives and some of the photos are in separate packets which contain identifying information such as subject, when and where taken, and photographer. The approximate accumulation is 22.5 cubic feet.
