ACCOUNTING STANDARDS, ACCOUNTING PROCEDURES, AND ACCOUNTING MEMORANDUMS - HISTORIC FILES

These files contain copies of obsolete or superseded Accounting Standards, Accounting Procedures, and Accounting Memorandums.

When a document is declared obsolete, a copy of the last official version becomes a part of the historic files. When all or part of a document is superseded by a new version, the previous version of the part(s) becomes a part of the historic files.

These historic files make it possible to reconstruct under what set of rules a particular action was taken or processed. Such reconstructions may be important in certain audit and litigation proceedings. No other material is contained in the historic files.

DISPOSITION

Destroy seven fiscal years after date declared obsolete or superseded.
