I.1. SUCCESSION PLANNING PROGRAM FILE

This records series contains information on persons identified as possible successors to high level positions at TVA. The information is maintained in several binders containing various forms such as organization chart showing Succession Planning candidates, Succession Planning report, personal information such as education, work experience, current performance, strengths and weaknesses, promotability, succession, replacements, past development plans, long range development plan, and compensation on Succession Planning candidates. The reports are primarily related to 1992.

The records series also contains photographs of the candidates. Photos are of various sizes with the majority being 8'x10' in black and white. Both reports and photos are arranged by organizations. The program was discontinued in 1993.

DISPOSITION

Destroy upon approval of the schedule.
