1 TVA ORIENTATION AND BRIEFING BOOKS

The records series is collection of miscellaneous materials assembled together for newly appointed Board members, chairman, or any senior executives. The purpose of providing these materials is to make them oriented with the existing TVA programs, policies, power distributors relations with TVA, power plants activities, employee activities, etc.

The materials are kept in notebooks and arranged by month. The materials that are typically included in the notebooks are pamphlets, itineraries by week, day, hour, travel directions, maps, floor plans, news clips, prepared speeches, talking points notes, flow charts, miscellaneous memos, biographical data, TVA customer lists, various background materials, various congressional information, various distributors information, various TVA business plans, programs summaries, and various TVA related information materials.

DISPOSITION

Permanent Transfer to NARA when the newest materials are 10 years old
(Ex Transfer 7/93 to 12/93 materials in 12/2003)
