Background Information The Selective Service System is an independent agency of the United States government that maintains information on those potentially subject to military conscription. The statutory mission of the Selective Service is to be prepared to provide trained and untrained personnel to the DoD in the event of a national emergency and to be prepared to implement an alternative service program for registrants classified as conscientious objectors. The agency is governed by the Military Selective Service Act (MSSA) which provides for the common defense by increasing the strength of the Armed Forces of the United States, including the reserve components thereof, and for other purposes. These records are maintained at the National Headquarters Office in Arlington VA.
