The Laboratory Violations Database serves two main purposes: (1) retain data related to violations cases for which the Laboratory is responsible and; (2) document status of Laboratory violation cases. The system contains data on violation cases opened and closed by the OET Laboratory.

Item 1: Input/Source Records. Violations data documented on paper records by other Commission B/O’s, manufacturer or other responsible individual/business.

Disposition: Temporary. Data is verified and stored in the database. Cut off annually. Destroy three years after cutoff or three years after the case is closed, whichever is later.

The information tracked includes the case status, coordinating bureaus/offices, and other case information.

Disposition: Temporary. Delete 10 years after violation has been closed.

Item 3: Output/Reports. Detailed reports documenting violation cases for which the Laboratory is responsible, including status of cases, closed compliance cases, monthly violations reports, etc.

Disposition: Temporary. Destroy when reports are no longer needed for administrative purposes.

GRS 20, Item 5
