

FEDERAL ENTITY CEASED OPERATIONS

Schedule Number: N1-220-01-006

Federal entities may cease operations when they are established as a temporary entity, are abolished, or functions are transferred to state or local government or private control.

Description:

On October 3, 1995, Executive Order 12975 established the National Bioethics Advisory Commission (NBAC) to provide advice and recommendations to the National Science and Technology Council, chaired by the President, to other appropriate government entities and the public regarding the appropriateness of departmental, agency, or other governmental programs, policies, assignments, missions, guidelines, and regulations as they relate to bioethical issues arising from research on human biology and behavior; and the applications, including the clinical applications, of that research. The Department of Health and Human Services provided funds, management and support services to NBAC.

The NBAC was renewed under Executive Orders 13046 and 13137. The NBAC was terminated on October 3, 2001 under Executive Order 13137.
