1.	Office of Navajo and Hopi Indian Relocation (ONHIR) Vendor files: A series of files arranged by fiscal year of appropriation, vendor number, document number and project description or client name, ie., FY01-0150-108613 John Doe. The vendor file is created when funds are obligated by contract, grant, memorandum of understanding, or purchase order. Physical files are created by vendor number and document number. Vendor numbers are never reassigned and always remain the same; document numbers refer to the fiscal year of appropriation. A new file folder is created for a vendor when funds are coming from a different year's appropriation. These files contain contracting documents, correspondence relating to the contract, scope of work, task orders, reports submitted by the vendor, invoices, and payment records relating to relocation program operations, client (relocatee) payment data, as well as vendor data on goods and services.
1a	New Lands Program Operations Vendor Files: A group of files incorporated into the series described above, which contain contracts, payment data, reports, invoices and other related documentation involving the acquisition of improvements or infrastructure associated with the ONHIR's development of the New Lands.
