Abraham Lincoln Bicentennial Commission

The Abraham Lincoln Bicentennial Commission (ALBC) was established by Congress in 2000 to plan the national observance of the 200th anniversary of Abraham Lincoln's birth in 2009. The fourteen members of the ALBC were appointed by the President, the Senate and the House of Representatives following the passage of the Abraham Lincoln Bicentennial Commission Act in 2000 (Public Law No: 106-173).

The Commission members were chosen based on their knowledge and study of President Lincoln and their dedication to educating others about Lincoln and that time in our history. The Commissioners focused on informing the public about the impact Abraham Lincoln had on the development of our nation and finding ways to honor his accomplishments. Through its own actions or those which it endorsed, the ALBC encouraged public participation and attendance at bicentennial activities across the country. The ALBC ceased operation on April 30, 2010. The Abraham Lincoln Bicentennial Commission Foundation will maintain and expand the ALBC website, develop educational materials and continue various outreach activities.
