Jamestown 400th Commemoration Commission

The Jamestown 400th Commemoration Commission (J4CC) was established by Congress on Dec 23, 2000 to plan events to commemorate the 400th anniversary of the founding of Jamestown in Virginia. In the spring of 2003, Secretary of the Interior Gale Norton appointed the 16 members of the commission, including the commission’s chairman, Frank B Atkinson.

From 2003 – 2007 the commission worked with various state and local authorities in Virginia as well as representatives from the United Kingdom to plan a series of events and initiatives collectively known as America’s 400th Anniversary. The Jamestown 2007 Steering Committee from the state of Virginia coordinated the commemoration efforts. The J4CC disbanded after submitting the Final Report of the Jamestown 400th Commemoration Commission to Congress in 2008. The records of the commission were held in a National Parks Service storage facility at Historic Jamestown until they were appraised in January of 2013.
