IN Fall 1989, Congress mandated, in Public Law 101-121, the creation of the Independent Commission, to expire on September 30, 1990, for the purpose of

A) Reviewing the National Endowment for the Arts grant making procedures, including those of its panel system; and

B) Considering whether the standard for publicly funded art should be different than the standard for privately funded art.

The Commission was composed of twelve citizens, four each appointed by the President, Speaker of the House, and President pro tempore of the Senate. It held six days of public hearings in June, July and August 1990 and invited testimony -- both oral and written -- from distinguished individuals and organization representatives. The Commission submitted its final report on September 11, 1990.
