STANDARD FORM 115 (REV 3-91) Prescribed by NARA 36 CFR 1228
The Commission on the Assignment of Women in the Armed Forces was established by the National Defense Authorization Act of 1992 (P.L. 102-190) to conduct an independent bipartisan, fair assessment of the laws and policies affecting the assignment of women in the military. It has conducted public hearings, taken testimony, visited military bases around the country and abroad, and reviewed previously published studies concerning duty assignments for female service members. The Commission transmitted its final report to the President on November 15, 1992, detailing its findings and conclusions along with recommendations for further legislative and administrative actions.
