The Commission on Interstate Child Support was established by the Family Support Act of 1988, Public Law 100-485, enacted on October 13, 1988. The Commission was charged with making recommendations to Congress for improving the interstate establishment and enforcement of child support awards and revising the Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act. To this end, the Commission was to hold one or more national conferences on interstate child support reform.

These records date from August 1990 to May 1992. Total volume is 3 cubic feet.
