National Gambling Impact Study Commission

The National Gambling Impact Study Commission was established by the 1996 National Gambling Impact Study Commission Act (Public Law 104-169) of the 104th Congress of the United States. The Commission is responsible for conducting a comprehensive legal and factual study of the social and economic impacts of gambling on federal, state, local, and Native American tribal governments; and on communities and social institutions. The Commission submitted a Report of such findings, conclusions, and recommendations to the President, Congress, state governors, and tribal governments on June 18, 1999. The Commission is expected to terminate no later than August 20, 1999.
