| | The Securities and Exchange Commission was created under authority of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (48 Stat. 881; 15 U.S.C. 78a to 78jj), and was organized on July 2, 1934. The general objective of the statutes administered by the Securities and Exchange Commission is to provide the fullest possible disclosure to the investing public, and protect the interests of the public and investors against malpractice in the securities and financial markets. This represents Phase II of the Commission's proposal to maintain its official records on microfiche. Phase I dated April 27, 1977, was approved by the National Archives on January 22, 1979 (NC1 266 77 1). The records listed below will cease to have sufficient value to warrant retention in their original form and will be destroyed after film inspection. The records to be microfilmed will be stored on packed microfiche and indexed by computer. Retrieval will be by COM index, computer printout or CRT. The estimated rate of accumulation for all packed microfiche is 720 linear inches annually. | | WITHDRAWN |
