	The Securities and Exchange Commission was created under authority of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (48 Stat. 381; 15 U.S.C. 78a to 78jj), and was organized on July 2, 1934. The general objective of the statutes administered by the Securities and Exchange Commission is to provide the fullest possible disclosure to the investing public, and protect the interests of the public and investors against malpractice in the securities and financial markets. The Commission, on March 2, 1977, adopted a Records Control Schedule [17 CFR 200.80f], and at the same time authorized the disposal of certain files no longer needed in the ordinary course of business. The following list consists of duplicate files (unscheduled) and miscellaneous general correspondence files which are no longer required and can be destroyed immediately. These files are located in the Fort Worth Federal Archives and Records Center.
