5 ITEMS

Arranged chronologically.

Brief summary notes concerning administrative matters addressed during Commission meetings. Subjects include travel, personnel, and other routine topics. Substantive issues concerning docketed cases are not summarized in these minutes.

Destroy upon termination of the Commission.

5. Contracts with Plaintiff Attorneys, 1946-78, 6 feet.

Arranged Numerically.

Copies of contracts negotiated between plaintiffs filing claims and their attorneys and related correspondence. Contracts made by the Indian plaintiffs with their attorneys are subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior. Before an attorney can practice before the Commission, he must first file a copy of his approved contract. The records set of these contracts are held by the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

Upon termination of the Commission, transfer to the Bureau of Indian Affairs for comparison with the record set. Destroy all duplicates following comparison.
