33D1. Real property disposal case files. Documents used in reporting, as excess, real property and related personal property no longer required by Federal agencies, screening for utilization and transferring property between Federal agencies, and disposing of property determined to be surplus to the needs of the Federal Government. Included are reports of excess; notices of availability; requests for withdrawal from excess or surplus; inspection and appraisal reports; requests for property, including authorizations and approvals of disposition; applications for public use; determinations of surplus; transfer, donation, exchange, lease, use permit and assignment, and sales documents; easements and deeds; drawings and specifications; bids and invitations; documents relating to the care and handling of property pending its disposition; correspondence with other Federal agencies, State and local governments, private organizations, or individuals; and related records.

a. Central Office: PERMANENT.
   (1) Current Records: Cut off following completion of case, and forward to the appropriate region for retirement under 33Dlb.
   (2) Records previously retired to the Washington National Records Center: Offer to appropriate NAAS Regional Archives Branch when 25 years old in 5 year blocks.

   Note: No Central Office records will be retired to NARCC after the publication of this change to the Handbook.

b. Regional Offices: PERMANENT. Cut off following completion of case, hold 1 year, and retire to FRC. Offer to NAAS when 25 years old in 5 year blocks.

c. Those money mortgage. Records necessary or convenient for the use of real property sold, donated, or traded to non-Federal ownership since August 21, 1935, including, if pertinent as determined by the releasing agency, site maps and surveys, plot plans, architect's sketches, working diagrams, preliminary drawings, blueprints, master tracings, utility outlet plans, equipment location plans, specifications, construction progress photographs, inspection reports, building and equipment management and maintenance records, and allowance lists, as well as duplicate copies of title papers, provided that (a) the records can be segregated without harm to other documents of enduring value, (b) no responsibility is attached to the Government because of disagreement between the transferred documents and the physical condition of the property at the time of conveyance, and (c) if the property is released for historical use or purpose the user agrees to retain it and return it to the Federal Government immediately upon the discontinuance of its use for historic purposes.

Transfer to a new custodian upon completion of sale, trade, or donation proceedings, or acceptance of purchase money mortgage.
