	The attached electronic records disposition schedule for Partner Identification and Management System is a new electronic application to be added to SBA's present records management manual.

This form was electronically produced by Elite Federal Forms, Inc.
SA 8/8/06 Copies sent to Agency, NR

System Name: Partner Identification and Management System

Program: Office of Financial Assistance

Legal Authority:

Applicability: Agencywide

Restrictions: This system contains confidential commercial or financial information the disclosure of which might be restricted under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA).

Purpose: The Partner Identification and Management System (PIMS) is designed to meet SBA's business need to identify and manage lending institutions and other organizations that partner with SBA to provide services to the small business community. In addition to collecting major information about Partners (names, addresses, contacts, participation agreements, history, etc.), PIMS also assigns Financial Institution Reporting System (FIRS) Numbers to lenders and feeds that information to FIRS on the SBA mainframe for use by the Loan Accounting System.
