F. DESCRIPTION OF ITEM
(With Inclusive Dates or Retention Periods)

1. These investigative records are established and maintained by the ACTION Office of the Inspector General.

The records store the documents or statements compiled during an investigation that may lead to a civil action or a criminal charge thru the Department of Justice; a disciplinary action; or whatever corrective measure necessary.

The records may contain statements, correspondence, agency records pertinent to the investigation, documentary evidence received and/or collected during the course of the investigation and copies of the final report and/or recommendations.

Files are numbered in a master log and identified by subject name. Materials are accumulated throughout the length of the investigation.

a. Records will be held in the office until the completion of the investigation and final referral of the case is submitted to the appropriate division for final disposition. Records will be retained for two years after the completion or final disposition of a case.

b. Upon destruction of the record the annotation on the master log will be stricken out.
