1.	Flexitime Attendance Records - Revision of NC1-362-83-2, (Exception to the GRS-2.3.b. three year retention.) Two forms are used for recording and reporting time and attendance and they are the only agency records of actual time worked by employees. The Flexitime Attendance Form (FAF), PC-1547 is the official daily attendance record and it lists the exact starting and ending times each each employee in order of their arrival and departure. This supplemental sign-in/sign-out sheet is used by Peace Corps headquarters offices, Washington, D.C., and domestic field offices for time accounting under the agency flexitime and exception payroll system. The FAF is required in conjunction with the Federal Employees Flexible and Compressed Work Schedules Act of 1982 as a sequential sign-in/sign-out form. It is a backup to the ITCS form. The Individual Time Certification Sheet (ITCS) PC-A-1003 is the official time and attendance record. Daily each employee enters their time of arrival and departure, paid holidays, hours worked, any leave used, and time absent. The ITCS is also used as a basis for overtime premium pay. After certification by the supervisor, the ITCS is used as the source document for the input of data in the automated exception		1 item

1.	Continued payroll system of all types of paid and unpaid hours and leave charges. Both forms are maintained at the work unit level. Peace Corps will retire annually to FRC. FRC will destroy records six years after the end of the calendar year that they pertain to. JUSTIFICATION: Accordingly, it is requested that the above two forms be retained for six years after the end of the respective calendar year due to the statute of limitations for filing claims pursuant to the Comptroller General Decision B-190912, "Statute of Limitations for Filing Claims Under the Fair Labor Standards Act", dated April 27, 1978. As no other agency record reflects actual time worked, an exception to GRS 2.3.b. is required. Attached are copies of the forms and the agency directive implementing their use. If additional information is required please call Richard Brewer, Director of Accounting at 202-254-6794 .
