EPA Records Schedule 096

Status: Final, 02/01/2007

Title: Environmental Data Registry (EDR)

Program: Environmental Information

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 404-142-02 - Data Collection

NARA Disposal Authority:

This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral), excluding any records already in electronic form. Records designated for permanent retention must be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer.

• N1-412-03-07

Description:

The Environmental Data Registry (EDR) is a software tool that catalogs EPA's data collections and helps locate environmental information. The data is contained in several collections of EPA metadata, including chemical identification information, biological taxonomy information, and terms with definitions. The components include the following: Terminology Reference System (TRS); Substance Registry System (SRS); Chemical Registry System (CRS); Biology Registry System (BioRS).

The Metadata Registry Builder (MetaPro) is a related component that is a tool allowing users to create their own metadata registries.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: Electronic software program

- Disposable
- Delete after each major version is discontinued or when superseded by routine software updates and quality assurance check has been performed.

Item b: Input

- Disposable
- Follow instructions for EPA 171 Input and Source Records.

Item c: Electronic data

• Disposable

• Delete when superseded or obsolete.

Item d: Output and reports

- Disposable
- Follow instructions for related records or EPA 175 Print Files, whichever has the longer retention.

Item e: Supporting documentation

- Disposable
- Delete when superseded or upon completion of phase in system life cycle.

Guidance:

The Office of Information Collection, Collection Strategies Division is responsible for implementing the disposition.

Reasons for Disposition:

The EDR is a Web-enabled Oracle database designed to support improvements in EPA's data standards and promote sharing across the Agency and with states, tribes, and other Agency partners.

The system replaces the Register of Lists (ROL) which is scheduled under EPA 088 and the Screening Information System/LAN (SIS/L).
