EPA Records Schedule 029

Status: Final, 02/29/2008

Title: Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) Annual Reports

Program: Environmental Information

Applicability: Headquarters

Function: 305-109-02-01 - FOIA

NARA Disposal Authority:

This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral), excluding any records already in electronic form. Records designated for permanent retention must be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer.

- N1-412-07-2/1

Description:

Consists of the report to the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) describing FOIA requests received and handled by the Agency. The report must be completed within four months after the end of each fiscal year and is compiled from information submitted by headquarters and regional FOI offices. The report is addressed to the DOJ Office of Information and Privacy and also made available to the public through the EPA FOIA and DOJ Web sites. The report includes the number of requests received, the number, reason for denial and appeal determinations, confidential business information determinations, disciplinary actions, Agency rules and regulations, amount of fees collected and fee schedule, administrative costs, compliance with time limitations information, and court actions.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a(1): Record copy - Nonelectronic

- Permanent
- Close inactive records after report submission.
- Transfer to the National Archives 20 years after file closure.

Item a(2): Record copy - Electronic

- Permanent
- Close inactive records after report submission.
- Transfer to the National Archives 5 years after file closure, with any related documentation and external finding aids, as specified in 36 CFR 1228.270 or standards applicable at the time.

Item a(3): Electronic copy of records transferred to the National Archives

- Disposable
- Close file upon transfer to the National Archives.
- Delete after electronic record copy is successfully transferred to the National Archives.

Guidance:

The FOI office in the Office of Environmental Information is responsible for maintaining the record copy according to disposition instructions. All other offices may destroy their copies when no longer needed.

FOIA requests files are scheduled as EPA 030. See EPA 031 for FOIA administrative files and reports, EPA 032 for FOIA appeals, and EPA 033 for FOIA control files. The Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) Tracking System is scheduled as EPA 263.

Reasons for Disposition:

The disposition instructions have been rewritten as media neutral to allow for maintaining the record copy in EPA's electronic recordkeeping system. The retention has not changed.

The following changes were made in the 02/29/2008 version:

- Divided item a into three subitems, a(1)-(3).
- Revised the titles of disposition items a(1)-(3).
- Revised the disposition instruction for item a(3).

The following items were deleted 08/14/2006:

- Item b - All other copies was deleted as nonrecords.
- Item c - Electronic copies created with word processing and electronic mail applications was deleted pursuant to NARA Bulletin 2006-04.

EPA Records Schedule 149

Status: Final, 02/29/2008

Title: Regulations, Standards, and Guidelines

Program: All Programs

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 306-114 - Regulatory Creation

NARA Disposal Authority:

This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral), excluding any records already in electronic form. Records designated for permanent retention must be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer.

- N1-412-07-2/6

Description:

Files contain information relating to the development, review, and approval of published and unpublished rules and regulations pursuant to environmental legislation passed by Congress. Records include drafts of proposed regulations and guidelines, the final regulations and guidelines, public and internal comments including concurring and dissenting opinions, OMB request for comments, hearing transcripts, meeting minutes, background documents and other technical support material generated during the process to develop and approve the regulation, standard, or guideline, along with current indexes of documents both included and cited as precedent. Files may include confidential business information or other information to which access is restricted.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a(1): Published regulations, standards, and guidelines - Nonelectronic

- Permanent
- Close inactive records upon promulgation of rule or approval of guideline.
- Transfer to the National Archives 20 years after file closure. If record is microform, destroy paper after quality assurance is completed.

Item a(2): Published regulations, standards, and guidelines - Electronic

- Permanent
- Close inactive records upon promulgation of rule or approval of guideline.
- Transfer to the National Archives 5 years after file closure, with any related documentation and external finding aids, as specified in 36 CFR 1228.270 or standards applicable at the time.

Item a(3): Published regulations, standards, and guidelines - Electronic copy of records transferred to the National Archives

- Disposable
- Close file upon transfer to the National Archives.
- Delete after electronic record copy is successfully transferred to the National Archives.

Item b: Unpublished regulations, standards, and guidelines

- Disposable
- Close inactive records upon decision to not publish the regulation, standard, or guideline.
- Destroy 10 years after file closure. If record is microform, destroy paper after quality assurance is completed.

Guidance:

This disposition covers all published and unpublished regulations, standards, and guidelines. The issuing office is responsible for implementing the disposition and ensuring that a permanent record is maintained. The official set of these records maintains those items specified in the Administrative Procedures Act and are to be sufficiently complete so that they can serve as the administrative record if necessary. Copies sent to EPA's electronic docket management system, the Federal Docket Management System (FDMS), are disposable as authorized under EPA 150. The FDMS itself is a government-wide Web-based portal; the system-specific schedule is EPA 152.

Reference copies should be destroyed when superseded. Working papers with no significant information should be destroyed when final rule is promulgated.

Microform copies are to be produced in accordance with NARA's standards in 36 CFR 1230.10 and 1230.20. If records are microformed, it is recommended that a silver as well as diazo sets are retained on site to simplify making copies.

Other schedules related to development of standards and regulations by states include: EPA 203 for state oversight; EPA 204 for program authorizations and approvals; EPA 217 for state implementation plans (SIPs); EPA 676 for development of enforcement and environmental standards by states; EPA 686 for development and enforcement of air and water standards by states. For administrative records for permits see EPA 210; for Superfund see EPA 019. Administrative records for other programs are covered in EPA 294. Dockets are scheduled as EPA 150. See EPA 154 for legislation. Rulemaking committees are covered in EPA 518.

Previous schedule items combined into this schedule were for the following programs: Water, Solid Waste, Emergency and Remedial Response, Toxic Substances, Air Quality Planning and Standards, Environmental Services, Pesticides, Assistance and Interagency Agreements, Radiation, Enforcement, Planning and Evaluation and Program Reporting. Specific item numbers are cited below.

Reasons for Disposition:

The disposition instructions have been rewritten as media neutral to allow for maintaining the record copy in EPA's electronic recordkeeping system. The retention is unchanged.

The following changes were made in the 02/29/2008 version:

- Divided item a into three subitems, a(1)-(3).
- Revised the titles of disposition items a(1)-(3).
- Revised the disposition instruction for item a(3).

EPA Records Schedule 155

Status: Final, 02/29/2008

Title: Reports to Congress or the President

Program: All Programs

Applicability: Agency-wide

Function: 303-100 - Congressional Liaison Operations

NARA Disposal Authority:

This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral), excluding any records already in electronic form. Records designated for permanent retention must be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer.

- N1-412-07-2/7

Description:

Consists of reports prepared by EPA and made to Congress or the President in accordance with the mandates of all environmental legislation. Report presents the objectives and accomplishments of the program, a summary of outstanding environmental problems in order of priority, recommendations for proposed legislation which is necessary in solving these problems, and plans for program activities during the next fiscal year.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a(1): Final report - Nonelectronic

- Permanent
- Close inactive records upon transmission to Congress or the President.
- Transfer to the National Archives in 5 year blocks 20 years after file closure.

Item a(2): Final report - Electronic

- Permanent

- Close inactive records upon transmission to Congress or the President.
- Transfer to the National Archives 5 years after file closure, with any related documentation and external finding aids, as specified in 36 CFR 1228.270 or standards applicable at the time.

Item a(3): Final report - Electronic copy of records transferred to the National Archives

- Disposable
- Close file upon transfer to the National Archives.
- Delete after electronic record copy is successfully transferred to the National Archives.

Item b: Work files

- Disposable
- Close inactive records upon transmission to Congress or the President.
- Destroy 6 years after file closure.

Guidance:

The office responsible for submitting the report is responsible for maintaining the record copy and transferring the permanent record to the National Archives.

Work files pertaining to the organization, design, construction, evaluation, and revision of the report generated by participating program offices are to be maintained by the program offices involved. These work files will vary according to the participation of the program and may include requests to form work groups, work plans, minutes of work group meetings, initial and corrected drafts of reports or parts of reports, distribution lists, and comments on drafts.

The annual report to the Congressional Joint Committee on Printing is covered by NARA's General Records Schedule 13, item 5.

Previous schedule items combined into this schedule were for the following programs: Water, Solid Waste, Emergency and Remedial Response, Facilities and Support Services, and Planning and Evaluation and Program Reporting. Specific item numbers are cited below.

Reasons for Disposition:

The disposition instructions have been rewritten as media neutral to allow for maintaining the record copy in EPA's electronic recordkeeping system. The retention is unchanged.

The following changes were made in the 02/29/2008 version:

- Divided item a into three subitems, a(1)-(3).
- Revised the titles of disposition items a(1)-(3).
- Revised the disposition instruction for item a(3).

Item c for electronic copies created with word processing and electronic mail applications was deleted 08/16/2006 pursuant to NARA Bulletin 2006-04.

NARA Disposal Authority:

This schedule authorizes the disposition of the record copy in any media (media neutral), excluding any records already in electronic form. Records designated for permanent retention must be transferred to the National Archives in accordance with NARA standards at the time of transfer.

- N1-412-07-2/8

Description:

Contains records that document the process for authorizing operation of a program by states and other entities in lieu of a federal program. Types of records include the application with background and supporting documentation, correspondence, copies of statutes and regulations, interim authorizations, and documentation of public participation activities. Also includes documents relating to EPA's review, evaluation, and determination of the program, development of enforcement and environmental standards, as well as authorization withdrawals as it applies to the initial program authorization and subsequent revisions.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a(1): Record copy - Nonelectronic

- Permanent
- Close inactive records at end of year or after new authorization is signed.
- Transfer to the National Archives in 5 year blocks 20 years after file closure.

Item a(2): Record copy - Electronic

- Permanent
- Close inactive records at end of year or after new authorization is signed.
- Transfer to the National Archives 5 years after file closure, with any related documentation and external finding aids, as specified in 36 CFR 1228.270 or standards applicable at the time.

Item a(3): Electronic copy of records transferred to the National Archives

- Disposable
- Close file upon transfer to the National Archives.
- Delete after electronic record copy is successfully transferred to the National Archives.

Guidance:

Also known as primacy files in the water program.

The record copy of these files is held by the Agency headquarters or regional office responsible for issuing the authorization to the state or other entity. This responsibility varies by statute and the level of authorization, but primarily, authorization is the responsibility of the regional office.

Draft applications may be destroyed after approval of final application. RCRA interim authorizations may be retired when the state or other entity receives final authorization.

On-site reference sets of these documents may be maintained by offices other than the office of responsibility to support on-going program activities. All other informational and review copies can be destroyed when superseded or no longer needed.

State implementation plans for the air program are covered in EPA 217. RCRA solid waste management plans are covered in EPA 201. Other records related to oversight of state programs are scheduled as EPA 203.

See EPA 686 for development and enforcement of air and water standards by states maintained by the Headquarters Office of Enforcement and Compliance Assurance and EPA 676 for development of enforcement and environmental standards by states maintained by the Office of General Counsel.

- N1-412-07-2/9

Description:

Includes all cases referred to Office of Regional Counsel or other offices with enforcement authority, for action against a pollution source or discharger. Includes correspondence, meeting documentation, inspections, field notebooks, evaluations, documentation of administrative actions including notices of violation, notices of deficiency, information requests, warning letters, administrative compliance orders, documentation of civil and criminal actions; corrective action orders, attorney work products, case summaries, pleadings, state and local enforcement records, settlement documents including consent decrees.

Excludes: Superfund site-specific and oil spill site-specific enforcement actions scheduled as EPA 025 and EPA 480, respectively.

Disposition Instructions:

Item a: Administrative case files where no legal actions are required

- Disposable
- Close inactive records upon settlement or closing of case.
- Destroy 10 years after file closure.

Item b: Judicial case files where routine legal actions are required

- Disposable
- Close inactive records upon settlement or closing of case.
- Destroy 20 years after file closure.

Item c(1): Landmark or precedent cases - Nonelectronic

Includes cases as designated by the Regional Administrator's designee.

- Permanent
- Close inactive records upon settlement or closing of case.
- Transfer to the National Archives in 5 year blocks 20 years after file closure. If record is microform, destroy paper after quality assurance is completed.

Item c(2): Landmark or precedent cases - Electronic

Includes cases as designated by the Regional Administrator's designee.

- Permanent
- Close inactive records upon settlement or closing of case.
- Transfer to the National Archives 5 years after file closure, with any related documentation and external finding aids, as specified in 36 CFR 1228.270 or standards applicable at the time.

Item c(3): Landmark or precedent cases - Electronic copy of records transferred to the National Archives

Includes cases as designated by the Regional Administrator's designee.

- Disposable
- Close file upon transfer to the National Archives.
- Delete after electronic record copy is successfully transferred to the National Archives.

Guidance:

The unit with enforcement authority is responsible for maintaining the record copy and implementing the disposition, including selecting landmark cases for recommendation to the Regional Administrator or the Regional Administrator's designee. Examples of possible landmark cases would be cases that may have the largest award, or the first case of the kind or some other special distinction, or results in a legal precedent. A landmark case may establish or affirm Agency policy with respect to environmental actions of national importance (e.g., banning a hazardous substance) or other actions affecting EPA's relationship with an entire industry or major pollution source.

Records may include financial assurance documents, "ability to pay" documents, and negotiable instruments such as letters of credit and stock certificates. Original negotiable instruments must be protected and kept in fireproofed locked containers such as a safe. Copies of the negotiable instruments may be kept in the related files.

Copies of these records incorporated into other files (e.g., with site or facility files) are to be retained according to the disposition instructions for the records they support

The Sample Management System used to track enforcement action sample data is scheduled as EPA 062 - Lab Automation System (LBAU). See EPA 205 for permits for programs other than RCRA and EPA 478 for RCRA. See EPA 206 for RCRA corrective actions. Administrative records relating to permits are covered in EPA 210. Compliance files are to be retained in accordance with EPA 211. Other program facilities files are scheduled as: EPA 215 for underground storage tanks; EPA 220 for radiation; EPA 225 for pesticides; and EPA 227 for toxic substances. Criminal investigation records are covered in EPA 208 and criminal enforcement counsel in EPA 683.

Microform copies are to be produced in accordance with standards in 36 CFR 1230.10 and 1230.20. It is recommended that the office retain a silver as well as a diazo set of microformed records on site to simplify making copies.

Records containing sensitive information must be shredded or otherwise definitively destroyed to protect confidentiality.

Reasons for Disposition:

Disposition instructions have been rewritten as media neutral to allow for maintaining the record copy in EPA's electronic recordkeeping system. The retention is unchanged.

The following changes were made in the 02/29/2008 version:
