tion, interim reports and the reports of investigation. The official record of this series is maintained both in ADAMS and in paper form to ensure availability of evidence and exhibits for adjudication purposes. Paper files contain evidence files and chain of custody records that are not placed in ADAMS. Records are created in the regional field offices and transferred to headquarters for final processing.

Note: Case files for investigations begun prior to 04/01/2000 will be maintained in hard copy only, including related documents created or received after 04/01/2000. Case files for investigations begun on or after 04/01/2000 will be maintained in both ADAMS and hard copy.

a. Official case files created by field investigators and maintained at regional field offices that are selected by NRC because they meet one or more of the following criteria:

- Received wide attention from the news media;
- Was of significant interest to Congress, the White House, or NRC Commissioners;
- Was involved in extensive litigation;
- Was involved in a major policy discussion and/or change in the Office of Investigations or in the Nuclear Regulatory Commission as a whole; and
- Prompted significant changes in designs or procedures by or relating to the nuclear industry.
