The forms listed above were utilized to gather information for the Commission's National School Desegregation Survey. Data from these completed forms (except Form 203D) will be transferred to computer tapes which will retain such data, recategorized for the purpose of preparing a statistical analysis of school desegregation nationwide. Data from Form 203D will not be utilized due to insufficiency of response. Once recategorized and stored on computer tape, individual copies of the answered questionnaires will be of no further use to the Commission. Data has been accumulating from these questionnaires since January 15, 1976, and will continue to accumulate until approximately July 31, 1976. This request is for authorization to destroy the survey forms as soon as essential data contained therein has been transferred to computer tapes.
