Peace Corps Still Photography, as described on the attached two pages.
Still Pictures

Subjects which document the mission and programs of the Peace Corps, such as photography pertaining to recruitment, training, overseas operations, and media coverage.

(a) Black and white photographs:

Original negative and reference copy (NOTE: The reference copy may be a captioned print or a contact sheet, if none other is available.)

(b) Color photographs:

Original color transparency (slide) with a captioned reference copy and, if any exist, a color negative and an internegative, if one exists. (NOTE: The reference copy may be a captioned print or a contact sheet, if none other is available.)

(c) Slide sets:

The original and a reference set, and the related audio recording and script, if one exists.

(d) Other pictorial records, such as filmstrips and original artwork:

The original and a reference print.

(e) Existing finding aids. These can include data sheets, shot lists, review sheets, contact lists, continuities, catalogues, indices, lists of captions, and other textual documentation that are necessary or helpful for the proper identification, retrieval and use of records described above, and production case files or similar files that include copies of production contracts, scripts, transcripts, and appropriate documentation bearing on the origin, acquisition, release, and ownership of the production.

Disposition: Permanent. Transfer to the National Archives in five year blocks when the oldest material is 10 years old. (E.g., photographs taken in 1986 - 1990 would be transferred to the National Archives in 1996, photographs taken in 1991 - 1995 would be transferred in 2001, etc.) Transfer finding aids and production documentation with the records to which they relate.

NOTE: Still photography records not covered by this schedule are disposable under General Records Schedule 21 (Audiovisual Records).
