This SF 115 represents a disposition request for the Peace Corps Volunteer Data base Management System (PCVDBMS), an electronic records system maintained by the Peace Corps. In its 1991 study of major automated databases maintained by agencies of the U.S. Government, the National Academy of Public Administration (NAPA) strongly recommended that the National Archives acquire the information contained in this system.

ITEM 1a. Peace Corps Volunteer Data Base Management System (PCVDBMS).

This item consists of a database containing information about each Peace Corps volunteer from the time they apply to the time they complete service. This system includes information about the volunteer's recruitment, placement, and evaluation. It also includes personal information (age, race, sex, etc.) about the volunteer.

DISPOSITION: PERMANENT. Transfer a copy of this database to the National Archives Immediately. Thereafter, transfer on an annual basis. All transfers should be made in accordance with 36 CFR 1228.188

ITEM 1b. PCVDBMS Related Documentation.

This item consists file layouts, code books and other related documentation necessary to understand the database. This documentation may be in either electronic or paper form.

DISPOSITION: PERMANENT. Transfer to the National Archives at the same time as the related data in item 1a.
