Office of Government Ethics

The Office of Government Ethics (OGE), previously apart of the Office of Personnel Management, was established as a separate executive agency on October 1, 1989 under the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, as amended (5 U.S.C. app. 401). OGE provides overall direction of executive branch policies in preventing conflicts of interest on the part of officers and employees of all executive agencies. The office is the principle agency for administering the Ethics in Government Act for the executive branch.

Office of General Counsel and Legal Policy

The Office of General Counsel and Legal Policy (OGC), is responsible for establishing and maintaining a uniform legal and regulatory framework of Government ethics for executive branch employees, for interpreting laws and regulations, for assisting agencies in legal and policy implementation, and for reviewing legislation and recommending changes in conflict of interest in ethics statutes.

The following is a proposed comprehensive schedule covering records created and maintained by OGC.

- Item 1. Special Project Files (SP): Records relating to the development of OGE written analysis on significant issues requiring special attention. Files include background documentation used in analysis; transcripts from interviews; correspondence and memorandums; attorney notes; substantive drafts and final versions of OGE's written analysis; and related records.

Current accumulation: 15 cubic feet ^{Media neutral notification} processed on 9/8/16.
Annual accumulation: 2-5 cubic feet ^{Jeremy P. Schmidt}

Permanent. Cutoff upon issuance of final written analysis. ~~Retire to WNRC 7 years after cutoff.~~ Transfer to NARA 20 years after cutoff.

- Item 2. Litigation Files (LT): Files include litigation reports, copies of official court documents, correspondence with the Department of Justice (DOJ), and similar records related to legal actions involving OGE.

- A. Litigation reports and OGE correspondence reflecting substantive changes in policy resulting from litigation.

Permanent. Cutoff file upon resolution of litigation. Retire to WNRC 10 years after cutoff or upon accumulation of 1 cubic foot of records, whichever is later. Transfer to NARA 20 years after cutoff.

B. All other records
