Background Information            By statute there are four EAC Presidentially Appointed and Senate Confirmed (PAS) Commissioners. Their primary function is to determine agency policy regarding election administration from a bi-partisan point of view. In the absence of Commissioners the Executive Director leads the agency. Absent both Commissioners and the Executive Director the General Counsel and then the next highest ranking senior agency official assumes responsibility for managing the agency. This schedule applies to records created by anyone assuming chief agency leadership responsibilities.
