Division of Operations – Program Management Office

The function of the Project Management Office (PMO) located in the Office of the Chief Operating Officer (COO), is to work on individual and short-term projects that support the business and operational needs of Bureau offices/functions as well as monitor and support ongoing activities and programs of strategic importance.

The official records of the Project Management Office are created, received, and stored in several formats, including paper records, scanned images, PDF files, data files, data sets, digital photographs and audio recordings, web-based records (such as SharePoint portals, web pages, wikis, blogs, tweets, etc), and electronic mail and word processing formats.

The records disposition instructions are media neutral, unless otherwise stated.

Item 1 Project Initiation Files

Records identify the key players, including the Accountable Executive (who will be accountable for the project’s ultimate success), the Client Lead (who will work with PMO on a day-to-day basis), and others. Records include the project intake forms, which describe their proposed project, identifying key stakeholders in the project, estimating the length of the project, and providing key milestones and measures of success. Records also include the project charter.

Disposition TEMPORARY. Cut off files when superseded or obsolete. Destroy/delete 3 years after cutoff.

Item 2 Project Files

Projects include but are not limited to business card distribution process, building renovations, swing space, office distribution, strategic office space issues and the creation of the civil penalty fund. Records include but are not limited to draft building plans, policies and processes for management of civil penalty fund money, memoranda about office space issues, meeting records and project tracking spreadsheets.

Disposition TEMPORARY. Cut off at end of calendar year in which project is completed. Destroy/delete 3 years after cutoff.

Item 3 Project Management Report Files

Reports contain information about the project progress and research, development, test, and evaluation tasks. This includes the identification, time phasing, requirements, and other information about planning and approval of the project and associated activities and findings.

Disposition TEMPORARY. Cut off at end of calendar year in which project is completed. Destroy/delete 3 years after cutoff.
Item 4 The Operations Advisory Committee (OAC) Files

The Operations Advisory Committee (OAC) is the main advisory body for operational governance. In the Project Management Officer’s role as the Secretariat to the OAC, records consist of but are not limited to agenda, minutes and report of meetings, papers and reports presented at meetings, reports, memoranda, proposals and papers produced by the committee and correspondence. Records also include minutes from the weekly Operations Advisory Call.

Disposition TEMPORARY. Cut off files at the end of each calendar year in which a significant activity (e.g., funding of building renovation) has been completed. Destroy/delete 5 years after cutoff.
