[Text] Hamburg--A 26-year-old employee of a travel agency, Maja Zietlow, has been arrested on suspicion of engaging in intelligence activities "for a foreign power." The Hamburg higher regional court has issued a warrant for her arrest. A court spokesman refused to disclose the identity of the foreign power, but according to information in the possession of DPA, Zietlow is believed to have worked for the GDR. She is thought to have been arrested in connection with the defection from the GDR of Werner Stiller.
