[Text] Berlin--Persons unknown carried out an incendiary attack at the Berlin sector boundary tonight. According to the West Berlin police, a car carrying four persons approached the border installation at the Oberbaumbruecke border crossing, Kreuzberg, from the Western side at about 2040 GMT. Its occupants threw one of several Molotov cocktails across the border wall. A GDR sentry box was set afire. GDR border guards were fighting the fire.

The police immediately began to search for the perpetrators, who were able to get away.
