

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

March 15, 1962

Dear General Landon:

I have been in touch with General Norstad about the work of our air crews in the corridors to Berlin, and he tells me that it is the officers and men of your command who have carried the main burden. I should like to ask you to convey to all crews involved my appreciation for a job well done, and I should like specifically to extend my personal thanks to 1st Lieutenant Malcolm W. Lindsay and his crew, consisting of:

Co-pilot, 2d Lieutenant William T. Fuller
Navigator, 1st Lieutenant Butler R. Dillon
1st Flight Engineer, MSgt Harvey E. Henderson
2d Flight Engineer, TSgt Abraham Zendejas
Load Master, A1C Billy R. Ingram
Radio Operator, A1C Frank R. Cerveny
Airborne Mechanic, SSgt Harvey Burniston

These officers and men have conducted themselves in a way which reflects great credit upon them and upon your whole command.

Sincerely,

/s/ John F. Kennedy

General Truman H. Landon
Commander-in-Chief
United States Air Forces Europe
Wiesbaden, Germany
