DDO NOTICE
NO. 1-1462

ORGANIZATION
29 September 1976

REORGANIZATION OF THE STAFF STRUCTURE OF THE OPERATIONS DIRECTORATE

1. PURPOSE

This notice announces the reorganization of the Operations Directorate staff structure, effective 1 October 1976, and outlines the functions of the new and the redesignated staff components. The new staff organization supersedes that established by the Deputy Director for Operations (DDO) on 28 June 1973 and as modified in the interim period. It is the first step of a three-phase, long range reorganization program designed to enable the Directorate to conform to the perceptions of the Executive and the Congress as to the Directorate's role, to adjust flexibly to changing strategies and priorities, and to make most efficient use of personnel and material resources allocated to accomplish the Directorate's mission.

2. GENERAL

The Headquarters organization of the Operations Directorate is comprised of the Office of the DDO and its special staffs, the Senior Staffs, and the Area and Functional operating Divisions. (See Figure 1, attached.)

3. OFFICE OF THE DDO

The following staff elements are attached to the Office of the DDO, and report directly to him and/or the Associate Deputy Director for Operations (ADDO).

- a. Assistant Deputy Director for Operations for Development (ADDO/D) (When approved by DDCI)

The ADDO/D will direct and supervise the establishment of a Clandestine Corps responsible for the recruitment, training and dispatch of nonofficial cover officers to foreign areas, and for efforts to develop new techniques, methods and equipment for nonofficial cover operations.

b. Associate General Counsel to the DDO (AGC/DDO)

The AGC/DDO is detailed by the Agency's General Counsel to provide advice and assistance to the Operations Directorate. He will work directly with the ADDO.

c. Evaluation and Program Design Staff (EPDS)

The EPDS will

- (1) Design and maintain continuous data on funds, positions, personnel on duty and other such management information as is required by the DDO and the Comptroller of the Agency.
- (2) Maintain continuous knowledge of the state or condition of operational activities and achievements, and support activities planned and in progress, including resources used, efforts undertaken, and results.
- (3) Prepare periodic evaluations of component programs against objectives including the need for requested resources, evaluations of past results, and projections of future results.
- (4) Monitor all data collection for purposes of identifying statistical evidence of problems, identifying areas requiring management attention by the DDO, and providing data to be used for internal and external presentations.
- (5) Review all Operational Activity (OP ACT) approvals to ensure compliance with Agency and Directorate regulations, and prepare staff recommendations on Operational Activities which require DDO approval or attention.
- (6) Provide staff assistance to the DDO on Directorate, Agency, Community and Government data requirements, techniques and regulations pertaining thereto.

- (7) Undertake special studies as directed of management issues which affect the efficiency or effectiveness of Directorate activities.
 - (8) Provide staff assistance to the DDO on Directorate, Agency, Community and Government evaluation requirements, techniques, and regulations pertinent thereto.
 - (9) Continue to develop production and evaluation techniques and values.
- d. Policy and Coordination Staff (PCS)

The mission of the Policy and Coordination Staff is to serve as the focal point through which the DDO directs and controls certain activities of the Directorate crossing geographic divisional boundaries. It also will assist in formulating and recommending to the DDO policy and doctrine on matters with overall applicability to the Directorate. The Chief of this Staff will act for the DDO and the ADDO if these officers are unavailable. The responsibilities of this staff will include all intelligence-related matters including staff guidance on scientific and technical matters and such activities as crisis management, international terrorism, narcotics, technical operations, and defector operations. Additionally, the Staff is the focal point for Directorate coordination with the Intelligence Community Staff, the National Intelligence Officers, other components of the Agency, as well as with other agencies of the Government. The Staff will also be responsible for conducting and monitoring liaison with the principal elements of the Intelligence Community. It will be responsible for ensuring that the operations and activities of the Directorate are in compliance with existing regulations and procedures, and for formulation or revision of regulations and procedures as may be required. In short, this Staff will coordinate the paper flow of the Deputy Director for Operations and in so doing serve as a central clearing house for the movement of paper from the Staffs and Divisions to the Office of the DDO. This Staff also will provide policy focus to issues of common concern affecting Directorate-wide activities. It will also provide the support facilities for the DDO's special and Senior Staffs.
