KCB/2nd Chier Directorate - Rima ZETAROOK nee SHIRALOVA, LEOB 18
Chief, EUR Chief, EUR Chief of Station Chief of Station Con Manager Control of Station ECC MANAGER CONTROL OF CONTRO
Chief, EUR Chief of Station SET S. CONTROLL Chief of Station Chief of Station Chief of Station Chief of Station CREPTON KCB/2nd Chief Directorate - Pina LETTICOR nee SHEALDUM, BFOB 18 January States 1. Buring Brigitte F. VACSERLAUF'S visit in Earch 1966, she mentioned Subject to the halyst assigned to Second Chief Directorate activities. The latter has now written a summary of information from files on Subject and attached three photographs of Subject which are transmitted herewith. 2. states: "When (WASSERLAUF) was here last Earch, one of the INdex cards which she looked at was for SNIRAMOVA. Since then I have discovered that EMPRATOVA figures in the Warren Report as the Internst guide provided for Lee CCWALD on his arrival in Essect in October 1959. Our information about her is briefly as follows: "SNIPAROVA has come to our notice as the friend of two Eritish brothers who first visited the Soviet Union in 1966. She and a male guide joined the party with which the brothers were travelling at the Russian border. One of the brothers, who has pursued the friendship more than the other, considers he made the running, not EMERALOVA. He claims that relations between them have become affectionate, but are platonic. In fact since he first met EMERALOVA she has carried and had a child, and our source visits their home when he goes to the Eoviet Union. They also maintain a steady correspondence. "After the birth of her daughter in October 1636. In SHEMALOVA, new Ers. SHETCOR, wrote the She had left Intelligat and vas employed as a teacher of English in a Lecow teachers' training college.
Chief of Station, Chief of Station, Chief of Station, CHIEF OF STATES OF Chief of Station, DEC NEW NO. REMODE REMODE RECEIVED DIRECTORAGE - Rims ZETAROOK nee SHERALDVA, DEOB 18 To answay 1959, Loscow 1. Buring Brigitte F. WASSERIAUT'S visit in Earch 1966, she mentioned Subject to the malyst assigned to Second Chief Directorate activities. The latter has now written a summary of information from files on Subject and attached three photographs of Subject which are transmitted herewith. 2. states: "When (WASSERLAUT) was here last Larch, one of the INdex cards which she looked at was for SHIRAEDVA. Since then I have discovered that SHIRAEDVA figures in the Warnen Report as the Intourist guide provided for Lee CEMALD on his arrival in Loscow in October 1959. Our information about her is briefly as follows: "SHIRAEDVA has come to our notice as the friend of two British brothers who first visited the Soviet Union in 1966. She and a male guide joined the party with which the brothers were travelling at the Russian border. One of the brothers, who has pursued the friendship nore than the other, considers he made the running, not SHIRAEDVA. He claims that relations between them have become affectionate, but are platenic. In fact since he first met SHIRAEDVA she has married and had a child, and our source visits their home when he goes to the Soviet Union. They also maintain a steady correspondence. "After the birth of her daughter in Getober 1830, in SHIRAEDVA, now hirs. SHIRAEDVA was the had loft Intourist and was employed as a teacher of English in a Loscow teachers' training college.
COC. N. 200 1 COC. N. 200
1. Buring Brigitte F. WASSERLAUF's visit in Earch 1966, she mentioned Subject to the hallyst assigned to Second Chief Directorate activities. The latter has now written a summary of information from files on Subject and attached three photographs of Subject which are transmitted herewith. 2. states: "When (WASSERLAUF) was here last Earch, one of the INdex cards which she looked at was for Shiramova. Since then I have discovered that Shiramova figures in the Uarren Report as the Interrist guide provided for Lee CEVALD on his trrival in Escov in October 1959. Cur information about her is briefly as follows: "Shiramova has come to our notice as the friend of two British brothers who first visited the Soviet Union in 1960. She and a male guide joined the party with which the brothers were travelling at the Russian border. One of the brothers, who has pursued the friendship more than the other, considers he made the running, not CHYRAMOVA. He claims that relations between them have become affectionate, but are platonic. In fact since he first met CHYRAMOVA. He claims that relations between them have become affectionate, but are platonic. In fact since he first met CHYRAMOVA she has married and had a child, and our source visits their home when he goes to the Soviet Union. They also maintain a steady correspondence. "After the birth of her daughter in Getober 1830, 1945" SHIMMOVA, now Ers. SHIMMOVA, wrote the she had Tolk Interrist and was employed as a teacher of English in a Lockov teachers' training college.
1. Buring Brigitte F. WASSERLAUF's visit in Earch 1966, she mentioned Subject to the halyst assigned to Second Chief Directorate activities. The latter has now written a summary of information from files on Subject and attached three photographs of Subject which are transmitted herewith. 2. states: "When (WASSERLAUF) was here last Earch, one of the INdex cards which she looked at was for SMIRAEDVA. Since then I have discovered that EMMADDVA figures in the Warren Report as the Intourist guide provided for Lee CEWALD on his carrival in Easew in October 1959. Our information about her is briefly as follows: "SMIRAMOVA has come to our notice as the friend of two British brothers who first visited the Soviet Union in 1960. She and a male guide joined the party with which the brothers were travelling at the Russian border. One of the brothers, who has pursued the friendship more than the other, considers he made the running, not SMIRAMOVA. He claims that relations between them have become affectionate, but are plateafe. In fact since he first met SMIRAMOVA she has married and had a child, and our source visits their home when he goes to the Soviet Union. They also maintain a steady correspondence. "After the birth of her daughter in Getober 1836, 1965 SMIRAMOVA, now Mrs. SMITHION, wrote that she had left Intourist and was employed as a teacher of English in a Loseow teachers' training college.
she mentioned Subject to the chief Directorate activities. The latter has now written a summary of information from files on Subject and attached three photographs of Subject which are transmitted herewith. 2. states: "When (WASSERLAUF) was here last Earch, one of the INdex cards which she looked at was for SHIRAEDVA. Since then I have discovered that EMMANDVA figures in the Warren Report as the Intourist guide provided for Lee CCTALD on his arrival in Escow in October 1959. Our information about her is briefly as follows: "SHURAEDVA has come to our notice as the friend of two British brothers who first visited the Soviet Union in 1960. She and a male guide joined the party with which the brothers were travelling at the Russian border. One of the brothers, who has pursued the friendship more than the other, considers he made the running, not EMMANDVA. He claims that relations between them have become affectionate, but are platomic. In fact since he first met EMMANDVA she has married and had a child, and our source visits their home when he goes to the Soviet Union. They also maintain a steady correspondence. "After the birth of her daughter in October 1850, 1965 SHITAHOVA, now has employed as a teacher of English in a Loccow teachers' training college.
Chief Directorate activities. The latter has now written a summary of information from files on Subject and attached three photographs of Subject which are transmitted herewith. 2. states: "When (WASSERLAUF) was here last Earch, one of the INdex cards which she looked at was for SHIRAKOVA. Since then I have discovered that SHIRAKOVA figures in the Warren Report as the Intourist guide provided for Loe CSUALD on his arrival in Ebscow in October 1959. Our information about her is briefly as follows: "SHIRAKOVA has come to our notice as the friend of two British brothers who first visited the Soviet Union in 1960. She and a male guide joined the party with which the brothers were travelling at the Russian border. One of the brothers, who has pursued the friendship more than the other, considers he made the running, not SHIRAKOVA. He claims that relations between them have become affectionate, but are platomic. In fact since he first met SHIRAKOVA she has married and had a child, and our source visits their home when he goes to the Soviet Union. They also maintain a steady correspondence. "After the birth of hor daughter in October 1806, 145" SHIDAHOVA, new hirs. SHIFTMON, wrote that she had left intourist and was employed as a teacher of English in a Loccow teachers' training college.
"When (WASSERLAUF) was here last Earth, one of the Index cards which she looked at was for SHIRAEDVA. Since then I have discovered that SHIRAEDVA figures in the Warren Report as the Interrist guide provided for Lee CEVALD on his arrival in Escov in October 1959. Our information about her is briefly as follows: "SHIRAEDVA has come to our notice as the friend of two British brothers who first visited the Soviet Union in 1960. She and a male guide joined the party with which the brothers were travelling at the Russian border. One of the brothers, who has pursued the friendship more than the other, commisses he made the running, not SHIRAEDVA. He claims that relations between them have become affectionate, but are platomic. In fact since he first met SHIRAEDVA she has married and had a child, and our source visits their home when he goes to the Soviet Union. They also maintain a steady correspondence. "After the birth of her daughter in October 1630. 1915" SHIPAHOVA, now Ers. SHIFTION, wrote that she had left Intedirist and was employed as a teacher of English in a Loscow teachers' training college.
"When (VASSERLAUF) was here last Earch, one of the INdex cards which she looked at was for SHIRAEDVA. Since then I have discovered that EMPRADVA figures in the Universe Report as the Intourist guide provided for Lee CEVALD on his arrival in Escov in October 1959. Our information about her is briefly as follows: "SHIRAEDVA has come to our notice as the friend of two British brothers who first visited the Soviet Union in 1960. She and a male guide joined the party with which the brothers were travelling at the Russian border. One of the brothers, who has pursued the friendship more than the other, commiders he made the running, not EMPRAHDVA. He claims that relations between them have become affectionate, but are platomic. In fact since he first met SHIRAHDVA she has married and had a child, and our source visits their home when he goes to the Soviet Union. They also maintain a steady correspondence. "After the birth of her daughter in October 1630, 1915" SHIPAHOVA, now has employed as a teacher of English in a Loscow teachers' training college.
"When (WASSERLAUF) was here last Earch, one of the INdex cards which she looked at was for SHIRAHOVA. Since then I have discovered that SHIRAHOVA figures in the Warren Report as the Intourist guide provided for Lee CEMALD on his arrival in Essay in October 1959. Our information about her is briefly as follows: "SHIRAHOVA has come to our notice as the friend of two British brothers who first visited the Soviet Union in 1960. She and a male guide joined the party with which the brothers were travelling at the Russian border. One of the brothers, who has pursued the friendship more than the other, considers he made the running, not SHIRAHOVA. He claims that relations between them have become affectionate, but are platonic. In fact since he first met SHIRAHOVA she has married and had a child, and our source visits their home when he goes to the Soviet Union. They also maintain a steady correspondence. "After the birth of her daughter in October 1636, 145" SHIRAHOVA, now firs. SHIRAHOVA, wrote that she had left Intedirist and was employed as a teacher of English in a Loscow teachers' training college.
cards which she looked at was for SHIRAEDVA. Since then I have discovered that SHIRAEDVA figures in the Warren Report as the Interist guide provided for Lee CSUALD on his curival in Essay in October 1959. Our information about her is briefly as follows: "SHIRAEDVA has come to our notice as the friend of two British brothers who first visited the Soviet Union in 1960. She and a male guide joined the party with which the brothers were travelling at the Russian border. One of the brothers, who has pursued the friendship more than the other, considers he nade the running, not SHIRAEDVA. He claims that relations between them have become affectionate, but are platonic. In fact since he first met SHIRAEDVA she has married and had a child, and our source visits their home when he goes to the Soviet Union. They also maintain a steady correspondence. "After the birth of her daughter in October 1886, 1465 SHIRAEDVA, now Mrs. SHITEDOK, wrote that she had left Intedirist and was employed as a teacher of English in a Loscow teachers training college.
have discovered that SHIRAHDVA figures in the Varren Report as the Entourist guide provided for Lee CSVALD on his curival in Ebscov in October 1959. Our information about her is briefly as follows: "SHIRAHDVA has come to our notice as the friend of two British brothers who first visited the Soviet Union in 1960. She and a male guide joined the party with which the brothers were travelling at the Russian border. One of the brothers, who has pursued the friendship more than the other, considers he made the running, not SHIRAHDVA. He claims that relations between them have become affectionate, but are platonic. In fact since he first met SHIRAHDVA she has married and had a child, and our source visits their home when he goes to the Soviet Union. They also maintain a steady correspondence. "After the birth of her daughter in October 1830, 1955 SHIMAHDVA, now hirs. SHIFLOR, wrote that she had left Intedrist and was employed as a teacher of English in a Loscow teachers' training college.
as the Intourist guide provided for Lee CENALD on his arrival in Escow in October 1959. Our information about her is briefly as follows: "SHUMANDVA has come to our notice as the friend of two British brothers who first visited the Soviet Union in 1960. She and a male guide joined the party with which the brothers were travelling at the Russian border. One of the brothers, who has pursued the friendship more than the other, considers he made the running, not SHUMANDVA. He claims that relations between them have become affectionate, but are platonic. In fact since he first met SHUMANDVA she has married and had a child, and our source visits their home when he goes to the Soviet Union. They also maintain a steady correspondence. "After the birth of her daughter in October 1836, 1965 SHIMANDVA, now Mrs. SHITMADK, wrote that she had left Intedrist and was employed as a teacher of English in a Loccow teachers' training college.
"SHIPAMOVA has come to our notice as the friend of two British brothers who first visited the Soviet Union in 1960. She and a male guide joined the party with which the brothers were travelling at the Russian border. One of the brothers, who has pursued the friendship more than the other, considers he made the running, not SHIRAMOVA. He claims that relations between them have become affectionate, but are platonic. In fact since he first met SHIRAMOVA she has married and had a child, and our source visits their home when he goes to the Soviet Union. They also maintain a steady correspondence. "After the birth of her daughter in October 1836, 1965" SHIPAMOVA, now lies. SHIPAMOVA, wrote that she had left Intolirist and was employed as a teacher of English in a Loscow teachers' training college.
"SHIPANOVA has come to our notice as the friend of two British brothers who first visited the Soviet Union in 1960. She and a male guide joined the party with which the brothers were travelling at the Russian border. One of the brothers, who has pursued the friendship more than the other, considers he made the running, not SHYRAMOVA. He claims that relations between them have become affectionate, but are platonic. In fact since he first met SHYRAMOVA she has married and had a child, and our source visits their home when he goes to the Soviet Union. They also maintain a steady correspondence. "After the birth of her daughter in October 1886, 1965" SHIPAMOVA, now Mrs. SHIPAMOVA, wrote that she had left Intedrist and was employed as a teacher of English in a Loccow teachers training college.
British brothers who first visited the Soviet Union in 1960. She and a male guide joined the party with which the brothers were travelling at the Russian border. One of the brothers, who has pursued the friendship more than the other, considers he made the running, not SHERAHOVA. He claims that relations between them have become affectionate, but are platonic. In fact since he first met SHIRAHOVA she has married and had a child, and our source visits their home when he goes to the soviet Union. They also maintain a steady correspondence. "After the birth of her daughter in October 1836, 1965" SHIPAHOVA, now Mrs. SHITHOK, wrote that she had left Intomrist and was employed as a teacher of English in a Moscow teachers' training college.
She and a male guide joined the party with which the brothers were travelling at the Russian border. One of the brothers, who has pursued the friendship more than the other, considers he made the running, not SHERAMOVA. He claims that relations between them have become affectionate, but are platenic. In fact since he first met SHIRAMOVA she has married and had a child, and our source visits their home when he goes to the Soviet Union. They also maintain a steady correspondence. "After the birth of her daughter in October 1836, 1965" SHIPAMOVA, now Mrs. SHIPMOK, wrote that she had left Intedrist and was employed as a teacher of English in a Moscow teachers' training college.
were travelling at the Russian border. One of the brothers, who has pursued the friendship more than the other, considers he made the running, not SHERAMOVA. He claims that relations between them have become affectionate, but are platomic. In fact since he first met SHIRAMOVA she has married and had a child, and our source visits their home when he goes to the soviet Union. They also maintain a steady correspondence. "After the birth of her daughter in October 1836, 1965" SHIPAMOVA, now Mrs. SHITMOK, wrote that she had left Intedrist and was employed as a teacher of English in a Moscow teachers' training college.
he made the running, not SHKRAHDVA. He claims that relations between them have become affectionate, but are platonic. In fact since he first met SHIRAHOVA she has married and had a child, and our source visits their home when he goes to the Soviet Union. They also maintain a steady correspondence. "After the birth of her daughter in October 1886, 1965" SHIPAHOVA, now Mrs. SHITHOOK, wrote that she had left Integrist and was employed as a teacher of English in a Moscow teachers' training college.
between them have become affectionate, but are platonic. In fact since he first met SMIRATOVA she has married and had a child, and our source visits their home when he goes to the Soviet Union. They also maintain a steady correspondence. "After the birth of her daughter in October 1886, 1965" SHIPAHOVA, now Mrs. SHIPAHOK, wrote that she had left Integrist and was employed as a teacher of English in a Moscow teachers' training college.
child, and our source visits their home when he goes to the Soviet Union. They also maintain a steady correspondence. "After the birth of her daughter in October 1886, 1965" SHIPANOVA, now Ers. SHIPATOK, wrote that she had left Integrist and was employed as a teacher of English in a Epscow teachers' training college.
Eoviet Union. They also maintain a steady correspondence. (b? "After the birth of her daughter in October 1886, 1965" SHIPAROVA, now Mrs. SHIPRODK, wrote that she had left Integrist and was employed as a teacher of English in a Loscow teachers' training college.
SHIPAHOVA, now Mrs. SHIVETOK, wrote that she had left Integrist and was employed as a teacher of English in a Moscow teachers' training college.
SHIPAHOVA, now Mrs. SHIVEADK, wrote that she had left Intedrist and was employed as a teacher of English in a Moscow teachers' training college.
Intedrist and was employed as a teacher of English in a Enscov teachers training college.
Willia two brothore Root wighted the ZUTTROWN of their Ind two brothers lead value of the many 1000 for home in a new housing estate in Loccov in August 1985. One of the things Rina showed them was an album of coloured postcards of places in the U.S.A. which she claimed had been sent her by an American in return for money she had lent him when he was visiting the Soviet Union and ran short of funds.
Unfortunately our source was not able to discover the name of the American or anything about him.
D. 2015 23 12 7 8
CROSS REFERENCE TO DISPATCH SYMBOL AND MUMBER DATE
46115 15 August 1966
CLASSIFICATION HOS FILE BUMBER SECRET/IS
Background Use Only 9561
Background Use Only Do Not Reproduce 9561

104-10072-10101

14-00000

CONTINUATION OF DISPATCH SECRET/E 6115

"SHIRAKOVA's personal particulars are as follows:

Born: 18 Jamery 1939 in Moscow Rushand: Valeriy ZHITMOOK: born 29 October 1937,

Engineering student

Date of marriage: 1963

Daughter: Aleksandra (Easka), born 29 October 1968 (sic) Address: Apartment 31, Esuse 25,& Vladimirskaya, Loscov E - 123."

has also passed this information to the local IMPRED officer for transmittal to its Headquarters.

ADRIAN O. BACTURST

Attachment AAICROFILMUA 8 SEPTCE

Distribution .

2 - 13 4/46.

3 - IUR w/Att.