SUBJECT: KRIVANOVSKY, Gladys Svetlana nee CONSTANTINE (or SKOYEVONE)
Nationality not determined Formerly of Fionstein, Rome, now Montreal
Non-Immigration

SEP 1 1954

1. The files of this office reflect that Nicolai Nicolaeovich KRIVANOVSKY and wife, Gladys Svetlana nee CONSTANTINE, stateless, formerly of Mukden, Fionstein, and then of Rome, were applicants for immigration visas to the U. S. during August, 1952.

a. Nicolai Nicolaeovich KRIVANOVSKY listed the following relatives in connection with his application: Father, Nicolai Vasilievich KRIVANOVSKY, no address shown; mother: Lydia P. Trovna KRIVANOVSKAYA, 69 Via Palestro, Rome; sister: Irina Nicolaeovna OUSTINI, same address as mother; sister: Evraia Nicolaeovna FUMAL, Villa Saffiere, Viale Ca Platana, 4 Points Cardinaux Boucass Blanc, Versailles; daughter: Rosa Nicolaeovna KRIVANOVSKY, no address shown.

b. Gladys Svetlana KRIVANOVSKY listed the following relatives in connection with her application: Father: James Thomas SHOFFER; mother: Mori YOSHIDA, c/o Mrs. NISHIMIZU, 233 Katsuo-cho, Ryomizaki, Osaka, Japan; brother: George SHOFFER; and sister: Mrs. Paris WORTHAN, 997 - 24th Avenue, San Francisco 10, California.

c. The KRIVANOVSKYS listed Mr. P.H.B. NEWY, C.B.S., E. C., "Clavering", Gordon Sea Road, Gosport, Bursary, England, as a character reference who is obviously identical with the applicants' character references.

d. In connection with the file check completed by this office, the following information was furnished the Embassy at Rome in our memorandum dated 25 September 1952:

"It is noted that subject states that his father is deceased. Information dated 12 May 1947, evaluation C-3, indicates that one KRIVANOVSKY, Sam, an old man, was a gate watchman at the Soviet Consulate in Fionstein.

"Information dated June 1946 mentions Evgene KRIVANOVSKAYA and her daughter, Evraia Popovna KRIVANOVSKAYA as self-appointed leaders of Russians doing espionage in the Philippines. The mother and daughter contacted the Russian consulates when they arrived in Manila to attend the surrender of the Japanese, and gave parties for the Russian officers. At this time Evraia KRIVANOVSKAYA expressed her willingness to work for the Russian Consulate in Berlin, but was told by the consulate that she would be of more value if she could get to the United States. It is not possible to determine whether the above-mentioned women are in any way related to subject or his wife.

Subject states that he was employed by the Carl Walter Company in Fionstein. Information in our files dated September 1945 states that this company supplied Germany with such needed raw materials via Siberia up to the outbreak of the Russian war in June, 1941. This same document also states that one J. WELSH was a member of the Sport Shooting in Fionstein, which group organized the were convinced national socialists.

Subject indicates that he was once employed by a Mr. WALKIN at the Volcano Laboratory. Information dated 20 January 1950, evaluation C-6, states that James WALKIN was a Soviet activist in Fionstein, and a member of the Soviet Citizens Association, and that he was reported to be willing to admit in aviation or special projects.

KRIJANOWSKI, Gladys Scotland ne CRYSTAL (nee SKOTCHDOPO)

"Information dated 21 October 1949, evaluation B-1, reflects that ne Solomon Ferguzovitch ~~WALKIN~~ was associated with I. G. ~~STUCHART~~, along the Soviet border. ~~WALKIN~~ was the proprietor of a pastry shop and his main interest was acting as a courier between Tsingtao, Pientain, and Peiping.

"Information dated 7 November 1946, evaluated B-3, indicates that Pasquale ~~DICHERIEZO~~, the manager of the Palladium Night Club, Pientain, who employed subject from January 1946 to May 1946, was suspected of dealing in black market arms and ammunition."

2. The applicant and her husband, Nicholas KRIJANOWSKI, are presumed to be identical with the KRIJANOWSKIs referred to above who were applicants during 1952 at Reno. The records of this office do not indicate whether or not they were successful in obtaining visas on that occasion.

3. In addition to the information set forth in Para. 1, the following report is brought to your attention.

a. A report in the files of this office dated January, 1947, evaluated C-3, refers to the organization of the Soviet Citizens' Club in Pientain. This report listed the names of officers and some members of the club. Among the members of the Managing Committee of the club was one N. N. KRIJANOWSKI (also known as N. N. ~~KELISANOWSKI~~). AKA

(1) This report stated that, among the above members of the Managing Committee, at least two, Basil Ivanovich ~~DOLBIEV~~ and ~~SEMMENOV~~, (AKA) were suspected of being then engaged in intelligence work on behalf of the Soviets, and at least two others, I. S. ~~GUREVICH~~ and V. A. ~~PEREKHOV~~, were suspected of having formerly engaged in intelligence activities on behalf of the Soviets.

b. Applicant lists as a character reference Mr. W. J. HOWARD, 8 Duke Street, Hong Kong.

c. The files of this office reflect that Arthur ~~GOLDINI~~, British, formerly of Liverpool, Merseyside, Victoria, B. C. and then of Hong Kong, was an applicant for a non-immigration visa to the U. S. during June 1954. He listed W. HOWARD, c/o A.R.C.I., No. 8 Duke Street, Hong Kong, as a character reference.

d. The files of this office failed to show any trace of Arthur ~~GOLDINI~~, but it was noted that he had previously been employed by the British-American Tobacco Company in Britain, a firm which was believed to have been established to provide a "cover" for Sino-British economic intelligence activities.

e. Arthur ~~GOLDINI~~ listed his wife as Tatiana Petrovna ~~GOLDINI~~ and ~~WASSILOVA~~ and stated that she had been employed by the Free Press Tobacco Company as of 1944. This company was believed to have served as a "cover" for the collection of economic and political intelligence for the British Intelligence Service. TATIANA

f. The W. HOWARD mentioned in sub-para. (a) above is presumed to be identical with the Mr. W. J. HOWARD listed by the applicant.

g. The information set forth in sub-para. b. and c. above was furnished the Consulate at Hong Kong in the memorandum from this office dated 9 July 1954.

5. No investigation conducted.
