SPECIAL SECRECY AGREEMENT

1. I Ross L. Crozier, an employee of the Central Intelligence Agency, understand that I will undertake a special mission known as Project JMARC. I realize that in the course of this mission I will acquire classified information within the purview of the Espionage Act, Title 18 USC, Secs. 793 and 794. I also realize that isolated words, phrases, careless discussion, actions and incidents, or the insecure handling of classified documents and material could compromise this operation, conceivably causing unnecessary loss of life, serious injury to the interests, prestige and safety of this Nation and be of great advantage to hostile foreign governments.

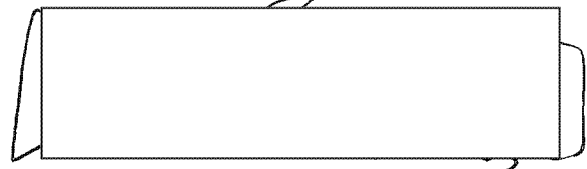

2. Therefore, it is understood that my unauthorized disclosure of any information relating to Project ARC may subject me to prosecution for violation of the Espionage Act, whether such disclosure be made while I am an employee of the Central Intelligence Agency or at any time thereafter.

3. I understand that the sensitive nature of this mission demands my utmost discretion, care and attention so that no interest of the U. S. Government and/or the Central Intelligence Agency in the Project will be revealed or inferred.

4. Understanding the importance of the mission I am to undertake and the necessity of preserving the security of the operation, I solemnly promise not to divulge by word or writing or to acknowledge or indicate in any manner whatsoever to any unauthorized personnel within or outside the Agency any information or comments concerning the Project or the personnel involved.
