1. A new organization, the Junta de Gobierno de Cuba in el Exilio (JGCE, Junta of the Government of Cuba in Exile), has been created on the basis of contacts between exile leaders and American business firms. Offices have been opened at 833 SW 8th St., Miami, and the following persons are officers of the organization:

Secretary General	Paulino A. Sierra
Vice Secretary General	Felipe Rivero Diaz
Internal Affairs	Carlos Rodriguez Quesada
Finances	Juan Medina Vega
External Relations	Dr. Lozano (fmr)
Propaganda	Alberto Garrido
Labor	Reinaldo Pico
Military Operations	Gilberto Rodriguez Fernandez

2. The JGCE was advanced $650,000 for its organization and for maintenance costs. Operational funds are expected to be advanced on projects approved by a group of American firms backing the JGCE. Military operations are to be staged in Central America through contacts arranged by representatives of the United Fruit Company, one of the sponsoring firms.
3. One of the first undertakings of the organization will be to station ten men in each Latin American country and delegations in other foreign nations. In each of the ten-man delegations there are to be three labor specialists.
