DISPATCH

SECRET

Chief, Task Force 4

Chief of Station, URUGUAY
Operational/PROSE/INTEGK

ACTION REQUIRED: None; FYI

1. Subject was removed from CAC on 3 September 1962 and taken to a safe site where he was debriefed for information. The purpose of the debriefing was to ascertain the subject's activities in Cuba and determine if he had any relationships with the C-2 or any other security organization.

2. During the course of the debriefing the subject appeared to be willing to cooperate and there were no indications of an attempt at deception. However, it is felt that the subject is a sharp operator, an opportunist and an individual motivated by his wife. He is very verbose, loud and attempts to hold the floor at all times.

3. CRELLANA claims that he had no relationship with the Cuban C-2, that he knew Fausto VALDEZ, Chief of the C-2, and Manuel FINEIRO, Deputy Chief of the C-2, but that he never conducted any business with them. He stated that he knew many C-2 agents by sight but never knew their names. He is of the opinion that all members of the C-2 are Communists and individuals of very low caliber.

4. Subject was granted asylum in the Uruguayan Embassy on 06 April 1962, which was obtained through [redacted] on 06/08

[redacted] According to subject he had to seek asylum in the Uruguayan Embassy because he was in danger of being picked up by the Cuban Security Services. He claims that in November 1961 he was engaged in the transportation of material and personnel from Habana to the "Segundo frente" in the Tacaray mountains, in the Province of Santa Clara. At that time he was connected with [redacted] "senito" [redacted]

GOVERNMENT [redacted] According to [redacted] was arrested in March 1962 and during the course of his interrogation [redacted] (continued)

3. [REDACTED] admitted that during the last few months he engaged in negotiations for the purchase of arms from Cuban officers. That during the month of September, 1961, he was in Los Angeles, California where he traveled to the office of purchasing arms from a Juan "RAMON" [REDACTED] of Los Angeles. He said that he did not purchase the arms from RAMON but that he did make arrangements for the use of contact elements to obtain these arms from RAMON. It is noted that the subject may have engaged in other similar activities which he did not mention. This section is based on the information provided in the attached Personal History statement regarding his travel and the short term jobs he held in the past.

4. Subject also admitted that he was arrested on 26 April 1961 by the DTI because of his connection with a group engaged in the purchase and sale of arms. According to the subject, According to subject he was a friend of RAMON and that RAMON was engaged in the purchase of arms from Cuba. Subject endeavored to take out of the country. One of RAMON's associates, Vicente Benito "MUEL" Hernandez and Juan "MUEL" [REDACTED] were arrested by the Security Services. Allegedly MUEL and RODRIGUEZ informed the Security Services that the subject knew the whereabouts of RAMON. Subject stated that he knew RAMON and after being held for four days he was let out by MUEL and RODRIGUEZ, who were released a few days before the release of Subject.

5. Subject denies any association with the Communist Party, C-2 or any other Security Service. He claims to be anti Communism and is willing to do anything in his power to combat Communism and liberate Cuba. Subject is an informant of the [REDACTED] interest and was returned to [REDACTED] for [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] does not contemplate any future contact with the [REDACTED]
